RESTORED TO HEALTH

BY THE USE OF
Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Mrs. M. A. Cumming, of Yarraville, Victoria, Australia, says:

"About a year ago, I had a severe attack of influenza, which left me very weak, without energy, appetite, or interest in life. Obtaining little or no relief from doctors, or from the many remedies recommended to me, I finally tried Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and from that time, I began to gain health and strength.

Wash, quarter and cure, without peeling, some nice apples. Add a little water and sugar and cook in a closely covered grauite kettle. The juice should be rich and jellylike. Eat cold with cream. If one dislikes the skins, or they are tough and distasteful, press through a sieve and remove them while hot and when cold you will find the stiff apple delicious with the cream.

The Inventor of the Torpedo.

Mr. Brennan, the inventor of the torpedo, commenced life as a watchmaker in Australia and at once developed a genius for invention. From first to last this torpedo, which has proved so profitable to him, cost him 15 years of hard work. The torpedo was sold to the British government for $150,000, and to increase the secret of the mechanism being kept each portion of this fearful engine of destruction is made in a different shop, the workmen are searched on entering and leaving the building, and Mr. Brennan and his partner are the only persons who fix the torpedoes together or ready for working.—London Globe.

A Great Relief.

Medicine (a building fictionist)—I hope you liked my new novel. It has a happy ending at all events.

Miss Stubbs (enthusiastically)—Yes; I was so relieved when I came to the last chapter.—The Iris.
